

ab

A point on the diagonal in a ignores the opponent entirely; below it is ordinary reciprocity, above it is inverted -- cooperating more after being defected on, which is where Mistral sits. Panel b is why FR7c's 'nearest rule' needs reading with care: the gap between each model's nearest and second-nearest rule averages only 0.10, so the label is a ranking among near-ties, not an identification.