

ab

Marker area in b encodes λ . The dashed curve is what a dyad would earn if it reached the same cooperation rate without ever mis-timing, so every round were CC or DD. All twelve cells sit above it: the frontier models' payoff advantage comes from anti-coordinated CD/DC rounds, which pay $(T + S)/2 = 5$ against $P = 2$ for mutual defection, not from mutual cooperation.