

a the deterministic dynamics do not see the payoff scale at all replicator flow on each face of the three-simplex at $\lambda = 1$, $\varepsilon = 0.05$, ten rounds; filled circles are stable rest points, open circles unstable. Rescaling the payoffs multiplies the field by a constant and moves nothing: over 2000 random states the normalised field agrees to $4e-14$